AVIATION EXPERTS

AVNEX is a leading provider of private and corporate aviation services all over the world. With a global network of trusted and tested suppliers and agents all over the globe, no flight service is out of reach. Our expertise, combined with bespoke services, has made us the prime choice for the discerning client.

OUR VISION

We empower our clients to be able to personalize their worldwide planning according to their needs, on their short time, at their own time zone.

Quickly achieving successful flight.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to offer our expertise and experience and shape it into technology solutions designed specifically for business aviation. We value our clients and take pride in the quality of our aviation services that make each of our clients feel special and exclusive.

To be a one-stop shop for all aviation needs among the leading aviation service providers in the industry

OUR HISTORY

We stepped into the world of aviation support services in 1999, starting operations from the Middle East. Upon starting the operations, we promptly expanded our services to deliver overflight, landing permits, ground handling arrangements, fueling and other crew needs. In the course of our serving years, we have successfully built a large network agents and supporters all around the world. Aviation Experts is strategically linked to key destinations in Africa, Europe, Asia and North America.

Headquartered in Dubai, the United Arab Emirates at the crossroads of East and West.

OUR SERVICES TRIP PLANNING

A. EN-ROUTE PERMITS

Short notice requests, unpredicted incidents, new forced regulations. Getting all these arrangements sorted before take-off is time-consuming and sometime confusing.

Throughout the years we built strong association with the Civil Aviation Authorities, Authorized Offices and Agencies around the World where we keep promises you make to fly on time.

In addition to offering overflight permissions, we also handle urgent permits for air rescue operations under absolutely stringent conditions. Count on our knowledge, awareness, and global resources to help make your trip possible.

TRIP PLANNING

B. FLIGHT PLANNING

We provide a comprehensive FPL package for your crew to help them perform at their best during a flight. We keep constant track of the recent developments and take all necessary steps and precautions to meticulously plan your flight.

As a result of apron planning and optimal use of existing airport capacity, the majority of the worldwide airports need SCR (Slot Clearance Request) or PPR (Prior Permission Required) which has to be obtained before arrival. Our in-house traffic rights specialists and a strong worldwide network of agents ensure that we can promptly secure clearance for your flights and offer flight planning services that resonate with our clients' needs.

TRIP PLANNING

C. AVIATION WEATHER

Let our dedicated staff provide accurate and up to date graphical weather information for your upcoming flight. With access to the latest tools and technologies, our team will plan your trip, keeping an eye on every single detail.

When our team embarks on planning your international trip, we take into account every relevant detail. Routes, airport regulations, NOTAMs, political situation and airport data are considered along with the weather updates. This helps us to serve you in the best way possible and allows us to save you time and money.
